

But today's and yesterday's action on this floor—and today's rulings, the rulings handed down yesterday and today—have all but stopped us from engaging in an honest dialog on this matter.

It is a slap in the face to the public, and to this institution.

If the majority party is sincere about doing the public's business in a truly open and public fashion, I challenge the leadership to back up their words with action.

THE REAL ISSUES

(Mr. BALLENGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BALLENGER. Mr. Speaker, what are the real issues facing Americans today? Nonexisting payments for book deals or House historians who are on the job for 1 day? I do not think they really care about that. Americans are concerned about the economy. They are concerned with how our Government affects their lives, they are concerned about their children's future. Republicans are ready to debate the real issues facing Americans today. We are ready to clean up Congress and that huge, overbloated Federal bureaucracy. We are ready to pass legislation that our constituents want, like a ban on unfunded mandates and a balanced budget amendment. I implore my colleagues from the other aisle to join with us in a bipartisan fashion to change Congress, not change the subject.

THE PUBLIC SHOULD NOT BE SHUT OUT OF THEIR HOUSE

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, my Republican colleagues set an unfortunate precedent by gagging debate on the House floor, and disallowed the airing of legitimate questions surrounding a Member's financial dealings.

Today, Republicans and the Heritage Foundation plan yet another closed door meeting with telecommunications executives to discuss future regulation of our public airwaves. The meeting is closed to Democrats, closed to the media, and closed to the public.

But, this is not the only way that the public may be shut out of their House. The Heritage Foundation has recommended to Republicans in Congress that they cut corners by charging admission to the U.S. Capitol. In fact, one Heritage Foundation scholar said this week of tourists who take guided tours of the Capitol, and I quote: "They wear down the steps, they brush against the walls."

Republicans should not be concerned about the American people wearing down the steps.

They should be concerned about how special-interest influence and book deals are wearing on the reputation of this institution.

THE 10TH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION RE UNFUNDED MANDATES

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, the 10th amendment states that powers not delegated to the Federal Government will be reserved to the States and the people—not the other way around.

However, the Federal Government has turned this amendment on its head by passing on to the States the costs of legislation it cannot afford. This costs States and taxpayers billions of dollars and countless hours in an effort to comply with extraneous regulation.

The States are being forced to sacrifice their own programs and priorities in order to comply with Federal regulations.

In my own State, we passed the Headlee amendment to the Michigan Constitution in 1978. This prevents the State from imposing mandates on local governments. This has worked to the advantage of the entire State; saving money and cutting burdensome regulation for local governments.

The proposed Federal Unfunded Mandate Reform Act will allow greater flexibility for State and local governments, more accountability for Congress and savings for the American taxpayers.

Mr. Speaker, if the Federal Government cannot pay for it, we should not force the costs on the States. It is time we take responsibility for our own actions.

BARBIE DOLL HAS MOVED TO MEXICO ALONG WITH 700 UNITED STATES JOBS

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, while Congress plays politics with NEWT GINGRICH, last night's trade deficit showed a record of $10.5 billion. The 1994 trade deficit, Democrats, will hit a record $154 billion, which is equivalent to 3 million high-paying American jobs with benefits lost.

It has gotten so bad, Barbie Doll has moved to Mexico. Mattel Inc., from New York, is laying off 700 workers. They will make Barbie Dolls now in Mexico.

Mexico gets jobs, America gets pink slips, and Congress is debating NEWT GINGRICH and balanced budget amendments? Beam me up. There is no intelligent life left in the Congress of the United States.

Where is the trade program of the Democrat Party? We are failing the American workers, and that is why we are in the minority, quibbling over the Speaker.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 5, UNFUNDED MANDATE REFORM ACT OF 1995

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, it is with great pleasure that for the first time I call up House Resolution 38 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 38

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 5) to curb the practice of imposing unfunded Federal mandates on States and local governments, to ensure that the Federal Government pays the costs incurred by those governments in complying with certain requirements under Federal statutes and regulations, and to provide information on the cost of Federal mandates on the private sector, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed two hours, with one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight and one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. In lieu of the amendments recommended by the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight and the Committee on Rules, it shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. That amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered by title rather than by section. Each of the first four sections and each title shall be considered as read. During consideration of the bill for amendment, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may accord priority in recognition on the basis of whether the Member offering an amendment has caused it to be printed in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII. Amendments so printed shall be considered as read. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommend with or without instructions.
